PART A: ANSWER ALL QUESTIONSQUESTION 1

"A contract of service exists if the following three (3) conditions are satisfied.

- (i) The servant agrees that, in consideration of a wage or other remuneration, will provide his own work and skill in the performance of some service for master.
- (ii) He agrees, expressly or impliedly, that in the performance of that service he will be subject to the other's control in a sufficient degree to make that other master.
- (iii) The other provisions of the contract are consistent with its being a contract of service."

- As per MacKenna J, in Ready Mixed Concrete (South East) Ltd v. MPNI [1968] 2 QB 497

Relying on the above statement, discuss the different tests and approaches being adopted by the courts in determining whether a contract is a contract of service or a contract for service.

Support your answer with cases decided in the Malaysian Courts.

QUESTION 3

The Chemical Trade Union of Peninsular Malaysia (the trade union) invited Syarikat Kimia Bagus Sdn Bhd (the company) for a collective bargaining. The invitation was rejected without giving any reasons. The members of the trade union had an emergency meeting where they unanimously agreed to go on strike through a secret ballot. However, Ali, the trade union secretary did not submit the resolution for the strike to the Director General of Trade Unions. The trade union went on strike for 3 days. On the 4th day, the members came to work but found that the premise was locked. This went on for 2 days before the Director General for Industrial Relations intervened.

Based on the above facts, discuss whether the strike and the lock out are valid.
